

CONTENTS

Premium & Low Cost Pricing

Introduction

Executive Summary

Part 1. Context

1.1. Squeezed incomes

Chart 1 Earnings growth

1.2. Recession psyche

Chart 2 Reacting to the downturn - The three groups

Part 2. Searching for value

2.1. The rise of the deep discounters

Picture 1 The rise of the deep discounters

2.2. Comparing prices online

Chart 3 People comparing prices online

2.3. Price vs. value

Chart 4 Attitudes towards brands, products and advertising

2.4. Communicating value

Picture 2 Communicating value

Part 3. Premium prices in a recession

3.1. The persistence of luxury

Chart 5 "I can afford to splash out on luxury goods sometimes"

3.2. Trading down to luxuries

Picture 3 Trading down to luxuries

3.3. Branding and loyalty

Chart 6 Reasons for staying with a company even if you could get a better deal elsewhere

3.4. Eco-ethical as premium

Chart 7 "I would be prepared to pay more for ethically produced products"

3.5. Mixing and matching

Chart 8 "I often mix-match cheap high street clothes with more expensive clothes"

Part 4. Looking forward

4.1. The Ratchet effect

Picture 4 The Ratchet effect

Part 5. Key points